NATURE PRESERVES & OPEN SPACE

BRINTON BROOK SANCTUARY: A 156-acre Audubon preserve contains over three miles of trails, is accessed from a small private drive off Albany Post Road North posted with a sign reading "SMRAS". A small parking area is located at the trailhead.

GRAFF SANCTUARY: This 29-acre Audubon preserve is accessed from either Furnace Dock Road or the end of Briggs Lane. For more information on Saw Mill River Audubon Society preserves, call 666-6503.

JANE E. LYTLE MEMORIAL ARBORETUM: A 20.4 acre preserve contains a loop trail system and connects to the Village's Highland Trail. An access road across Hudson National Golf Course is open during daylight hours and leads to a small parking lot. For more information, call 271-2623.

KAPLAN'S POND: An 8.5 acre village owned property at Lounsbury Road, is a unique natural site with a small pond and wetlands area.

CROTON GORGE AREA: Many trails traverse this 22 acre wooded, undeveloped village-owned area situated at the crest of the Croton River ravine between CET School and the Croton Gorge Trail.

CROTON TRAIL SYSTEM

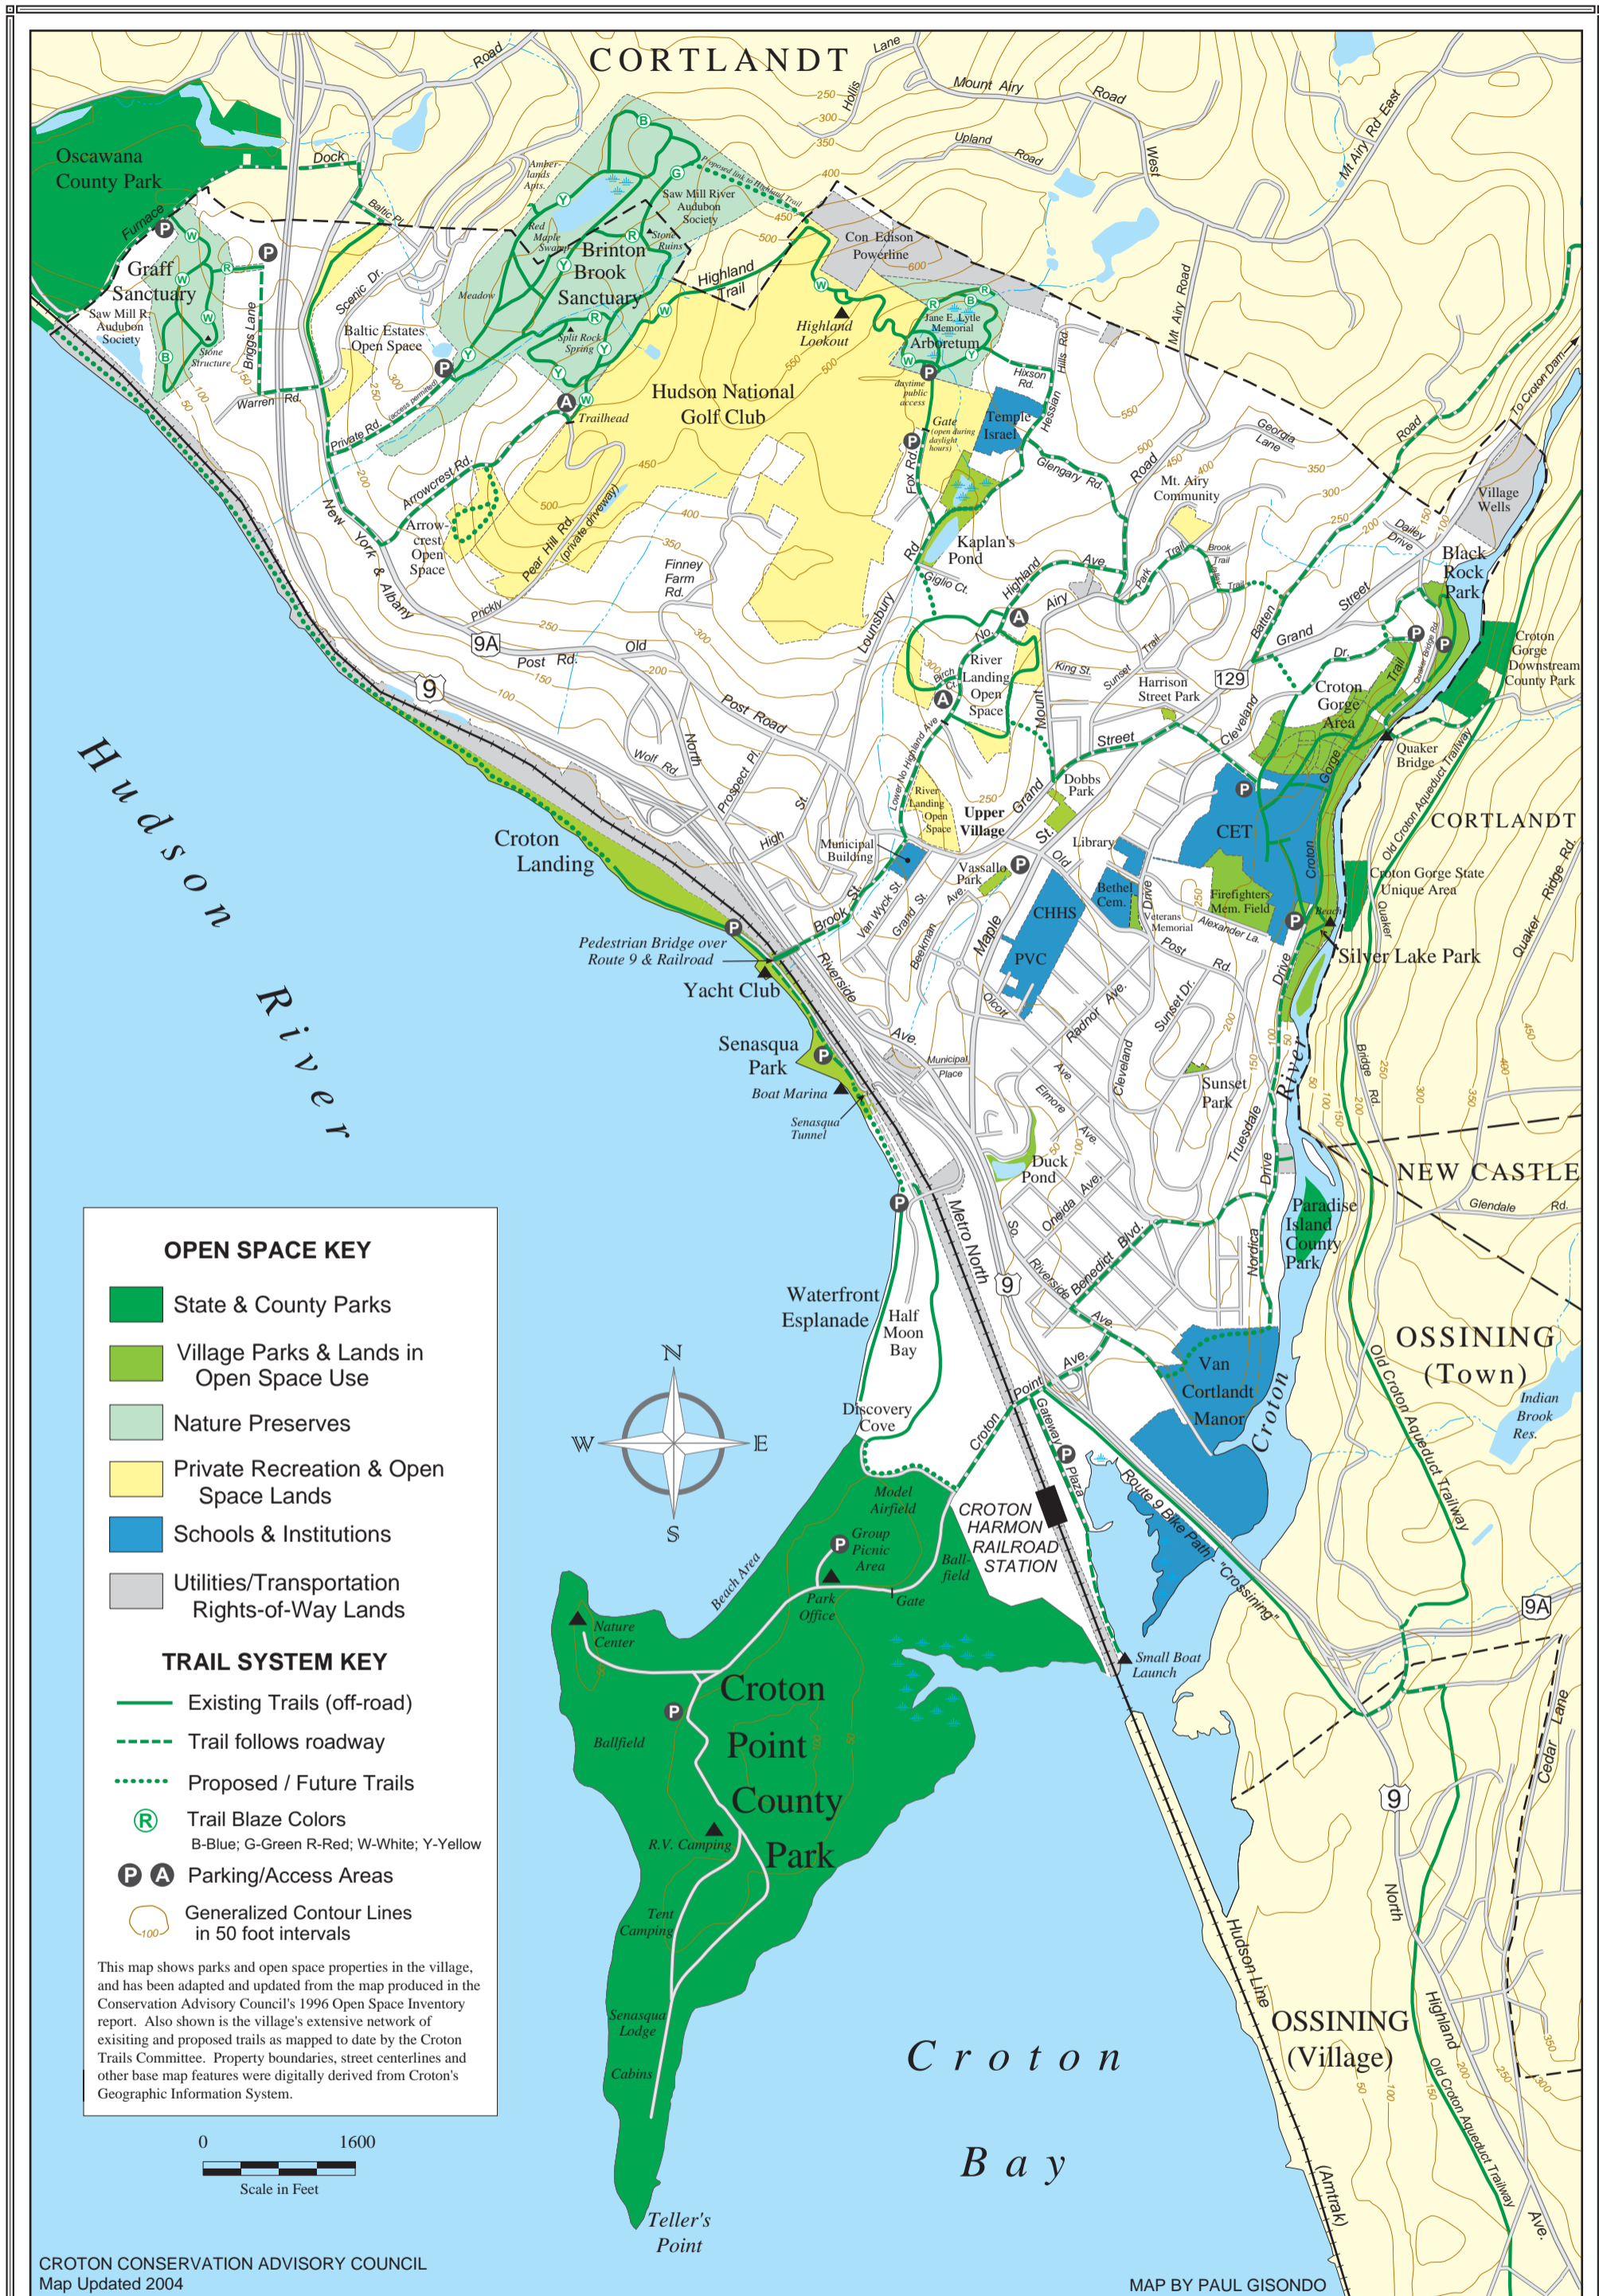

This map shows the extensive network of existing and proposed trails as identified and mapped by the Croton Trails Committee. With the exception of the Croton Gorge and Crossining, trails are for pedestrian use only.

The Croton Gorge Trail is a half-mile wooded trail that follows the Croton River ravine. It is accessible from either the Silver Lake parking lot or at the end of Cleveland Drive. A spur trail takes you down to the historic Quaker Bridge over the Croton River and up to the Old Croton Aqueduct Trailway in Cortlandt.

The Waterfront Esplanade is a paved path at Half Moon Bay, and is open to Croton residents. Parking is available at the gatehouse.

The Highland Trail is a scenic wooded trail that skirts the Hudson National Golf Course reaching one of the highest points in Croton, offering sweeping panoramic views of the Hudson River. It ties into trails at Brinton Brook Sanctuary and the Arboretum. The trailheads are accessed from either the end of Arrowcrest Road, or the Arboretum during daylight hours.

The Crossining is a one-mile paved path that crosses the Croton River, providing a bicycle/pedestrian connection between Croton and Ossining. It runs parallel to Route 9 between Croton Point Ave. and North Highland Ave.
