On the occasion of the Eagle Scout Court of Honor being held by Troop 28 this day, the 14th of August, 2011;

Whereas, we here today express our solidarity with and encouragement for the all Scouts who are being honored this afternoon for their achievements of the prior year; and

Whereas, the Troop 28 has a long tradition of successfully helping boys on their journey to young adulthood with all the growing responsibilities and potential accomplishments that such a transition brings to each Scout; and

Whereas, this Court of Honor culminates in recognizing, Benjamin S. Goldsmith, who has earned the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest award in Scouting; and

Whereas, his Eagle Scout Service Project identified, assessed, and labeled the homes of elderly or special needs persons in Croton-on-Hudson with new visible street numbers so that emergency personnel may locate each home more quickly in case of an emergency; and

Whereas, Benjamin S. Goldsmith has held many different leadership positions throughout his years in Scouting, which started when he joined Cub Scout Pack 28 as a Tiger when in grade school; and

Whereas, Scouting is both a family tradition within the Goldsmith family and a community tradition of great vitality within Croton-on-Hudson, New York;

I, Leo A. W. Wiegman, now therefore humbly proclaim with the power vested in me by the State of New York as Mayor of our Village of Croton-on-Hudson that this day, the 14th of August, 2011, shall be Troop 28 and Eagle Scout Benjamin S. Goldsmith Day throughout our Village; and

I now further humbly proclaim that the community of Scouting in our Village itself is much larger and more inclusive than mere dotted lines on a municipal map or registered membership of this Troop; and

That our Village is a state of mind that embraces the leadership, compassion, and public service values that all good Girl and Boy Scouts exhibit; and

That all who hear and abide by this proclamation are hereby honorary Scouts in our small Village for this weekend.

Leo A. W. Wiegman, Mayor
